

2019

Corn Silage & Forage Field Day

June 20, 2019- University of Georgia, Tifton Campus Conference Center, 15 RDC Road Tifton, GA

Registration link: <http://ugatiftonconference.caes.uga.edu/events.html>

No charge to attend the event, we do request pre-registration to allow provisions for refreshments and lunch.

Directions: accessed from I-75 off of Exit 64 at the intersection of U.S. Hwy 41 N. - From I-75 (Exit 64), turn North on Hwy 41, then turn left onto RDC road, conference center on your left.

Directions to Field Demonstration: Turn left on RDC Road when leaving UGA Tifton Campus Conference Center. Turn right onto Moore Highway to stop sign. Cross Zion Hope Road into Animal Science Farm. Turn right at the second drive and follow the signs.

- 7:30 am Registration
- 8:00 am Welcome and Introductions, Ballroom A
- 8:15 am Tour variety test plots
- 9:40 am Return to conference center
- 10:00 am Best Management Practices for Making Silage, Ballroom A, Dr. Limin Kung, University of Delaware
- 10:35 am Break (tour exhibits)
- 10:55 am Breakout sessions
 - A. Managing bermudagrass stem maggot
Dr. Lisa Baxter, University of Georgia, Ballroom A
 - B. Using dairy waste and other byproducts as fertilizer for growing forage
Dr. Glen Harris, University of Georgia, Room 19
 - C. Weed control in corn and forage sorghum
Dr. Eric Prostko, University of Georgia, Room 14
- 11:20 am Repeat Breakout Sessions
- 11:40 am Visit exhibits
- 12:00 pm Lunch
- 1:00 pm Drive to the Animal & Dairy Science Farm
- 1:15 pm Incorporating legumes into summer grasses to improve forage quality. Dr. Jennifer Tucker, University of Georgia

*Continuing education credit (1 hour) has been approved for Georgia Certified Operators of NPDES and LAS permitted facilities.

*Continuing Education Units (4.5 hours) have been approved for Certified Crop Advisors.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
College of Agricultural & Environmental Sciences

Sponsorship and Registration link:

<http://ugatiftonconference.caes.uga.edu/events.html>

We appreciate your support:

UF | IFAS
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA