

Georgia 4-H Training Opportunities

Training Topic	Projected Date	Time	VRKC Domain(s)	Inputs/Brief Program Description	Location and Cost
Georgia 4-H Farm to Fork Resources	1/08/19	10:00 AM – 12:00 PM	EDD	Teaching youth about agriculture and the impact of agriculture on our state is a integral part of 4-H programming. Sharing the resources of lessons and activities designed to experientially introduce youth to agriculture is the focus of this training.	Online and Free
Cloverbuds 101	1/16/19	1:30 AM - 3:00 AM	4-H PM, EDD, PYD	Based on research and information found, the Cloverbuds Issue team will present a session on all you want to know about working with Cloverbuds. All 4 years of Cloverbuds lessons will be shared and how counties are using it will be discussed.	Online and Free
Fund Development Friday: Extension Fundraising	1/25/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	4-H PM	This training will be comprised of a series of sessions that will highlight 4-H fundraising and development support, best practices, and resources. Based on the first session's feedback, additional sessions will be scheduled.	Online and Free
Celebrating Extension Volunteerism during National Volunteer Appreciation Week	1/28/19	10:30 AM - 12:00 PM	COMM, IC	Gear up to celebrate Extension volunteerism statewide during National Volunteer Appreciation Week! This session will share resources and ideas for launching a volunteer appreciation campaign in your county this spring.	Online and Free
Creating a Healthy 4-H Environment	1/29/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	IC, PYD	Georgia 4-H Healthy Living programs help youth learn about nutrition, health and fitness, bullying prevention, safety, and stress management to promote overall balanced, healthy lifestyles. The lessons we teach in the classroom and after school can be supported by the environment we create at 4-H clubs and events, or we can inadvertently diminish our hard work with inconsistent messaging and environments that do not support social, emotional, and physical health.	Online and Free
Celebrating with 4-H Awards and Recognition Programs	2/18/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	IC	Awards and Recognition are an important part of 4-H. Recognition opportunities can help develop respect and reverence; add dignity and foster group bonding while making every 4-H member feel special. They can teach, give recognition, provide inspiration, and provoke thinking. This class will explore the various types of formats for Awards Programs and Recognition in 4-H and provide numerous	Online and Free

Georgia 4-H Training Opportunities

				examples that can be used in county 4-H programs.
Classroom Management Series Session #1: Creating a Classroom Management Plan	2/25/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	EDD	Working in youth development requires us to manage the learning environment in which we are teaching. This session will serve as an introduction to managing the learning environment.	Online and Free
4-H Camp Survival Tool-kit	3/05/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	4-H PM, ORG, COMM	Your Camp Survival Tool-kit: Are you ready for camp? This fun, informative online workshop will cover everything you need to know to ensure a pleasurable week of camp full of happy campers and leaders. This camp tool-kit will include everything from parent/camper orientation, letters, a check-list of what to include in your camp event notebook, some helpful hints on what to expect during your week at each 4-H center, and tips for a safe, smooth camp check-in and check-out process.	Online and Free
The ABC's of Parliamentary Procedure	3/11/19	9:30 AM - 11:00 AM	EDD	Parliamentary procedure can help a 4-H club conduct more orderly and efficient meetings and is a standard used by many businesses and organizations for conducting business meetings, as well. We will learn the basics of parliamentary procedure, methods for teaching parliamentary procedure to others, and potential modifications to parliamentary procedure to better suit particular groups	Online and Free
Fund Development Friday: Extension Fundraising	3/15/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	4-H PM	This training will be comprised of a series of sessions that will highlight 4-H fundraising and development support, best practices, and resources. Based on the first session's feedback, additional sessions will be scheduled.	Online and Free
Healthy Living Resource Overview	3/18/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	IC, PYD	When it comes to Georgia 4-H Healthy Living curricula and resources, you've got options! In this training we will explore curriculum and other resource offerings in the Healthy Living program area as well as exciting grant funded program opportunities that can give a boost to your county program.	Online and Free
Classroom Management Series Session #2: Implementing Your Management Plan	4/12/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	4-H PM, ORG	A key element of youth development programming is managing the learning environment. Learn best ways to implement your classroom management plan or ways to implement the plans of the classrooms where you are a guest teacher/facilitator.	Online and Free

Georgia 4-H Training Opportunities

Continuing Opportunities: Strengthening Relationships with Donors and Volunteers	4/16/19	11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	IC, COMM	This session will highlight research and trends of motivations and preferences of young donors and volunteers and ways to strengthen relationships and steward 4-H alumni. Topics include: 4-H Volunteers, Collegiate 4-H, 4-H Donors	Online and Free
4-H Land Judging: Building a Foundation for Success	4/17/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	EDD	Georgia 4-H Land Judging is a great opportunity to expand county 4-H STEM Programming. Come learn what makes the program tick and how your county can get involved! The session will cover program basics, volunteer recruitment and management, Extension partners who can join with you and how 4-H Land Judging relates well to overall Extension programming.	Online and Free
Fund Development Friday: Extension Fundraising	4/26/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	4-H PM	This training will be comprised of a series of sessions that will highlight 4-H fundraising and development support, best practices, and resources. Based on the first session's feedback, additional sessions will be scheduled.	Online and Free
4-H Land Judging: Building a Foundation for Success	4/29/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	EDD	Georgia 4-H Forestry Judging is a popular program that we would like to expand. Come learn what makes the program tick and how your county may want to get involved. The session will cover program basics, volunteer recruitment and management, Extension partners who can join you and how 4-H Forestry Judging can benefit the entire county 4-H program.	Online and Free
Current Issues in K-12 Education	5/03/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	EDD, PYD, IC	Like Extension, the world of public education is constantly changing. In an effort to continue our partnering efforts in local counties and communities this session will offer updates to Georgia's Public School Laws and Initiatives applicable to Extension Personnel working with local school systems.	Online and Free
Starting Your Volunteer Program From Scratch	8/21/19	10:00 AM - 12:00 PM	ORG	This session will assist you in building your volunteer program from the ground up. Both experienced and inexperienced volunteer managers are invited to attend this session.	Online and Free
National Youth Science Day	9/12/19	10:00 AM - 11:00 AM	EDD	This session will give 4-H faculty and staff members the opportunity to review, practice, and prepare for the annual National Youth Science Day to be held during National 4-H Week	Online and Free

Georgia 4-H Training Opportunities

Communication: KEYS to success	9/19/19	9:00 AM - 10:30 AM	COMM	Communication: KEYS (Keeping Everyone on Your Side) to a successful 4-H program - with the parents, youth, volunteers, and other staff members. Learn some successful strategies you can use throughout your program and some organizational tools that may help you reduce time and frustration.	Online and Free
Basics of Youth Development	3/12/19-3/13/19	11:30- 1:00 PM	4-H ORG, EDD, COMM	includes an overview of the Georgia 4-H program and the basic tools all agents need to know as they work with youth audiences in their particular subject matter area. Topics covered include working with youth; policies (including screening volunteers); certifying overnight chaperones; insurance; and handling sensitive issues. Developing and judging DPA projects, judging events, livestock and horse programs, as well as ethics in 4-H will be covered.	Rock Eagle 4-H Center $250
Georgia 4-H Curricula Overview	5/07/19	9:30 AM – 3:00 PM	4-H	This session will allow stakeholders to preview curricula resources used for in school programming and see presentations of lessons. Also, best practices for delivery of content will be shared.	Rock Eagle 4-H Center $35
4-H Yoga for Kids Program Training	5/08/19	8:45 AM – 4:30 PM	4-H	Yoga is one of the oldest forms of physical activity. It combines breath, physical postures (poses), and mindfulness to help strengthen the mind, calm the mind and body. Our focus is on helping kids achieve optimal physical, social, and emotional health.	Rock Eagle 4-H Center Fees possibly covered through grant for 1 person to attend per county.
4-H Program Kick-Off	8/23/19	9:30 AM – 3:30 PM	4-H	Learn about Georgia 4-H programming and updates for the 4-H year from state and district leadership.
Projects WET, WILD, LEARNING TREE Certifications	11/20/19-11/21/19	8:00 AM- 5:00 PM	4-H, EDD	This rare triple workshop provides educators with manuals, curricula, and resources to support science and environment education (including math, language arts, and social studies) for k-12 students.	Fortson 4-H Center $170
Basics of Youth Development	11/12/19-11/13/19	11:30- 1:00 PM	4-H ORG, EDD, COMM	includes an overview of the Georgia 4-H program and the basic tools all agents need to know as they work with youth audiences in their particular subject matter area. Topics covered include working with youth; policies (including screening volunteers); certifying overnight chaperones; insurance; and handling sensitive issues. Developing and judging DPA	Rock Eagle 4-H Center $250 projects, judging events, livestock and horse programs, as well as ethics in 4-H will be covered.

Georgia 4-H Training Opportunities

4-H Fundamentals	11/12/19-11/12/19	11:30 AM – 1:00 PM	4-H, ORG, EDD, COMM	Provides an understanding of and appreciation for the 4-H and Youth Development program in Georgia and gives them the tools needed to effectively lead the 4-H program in their county. Content includes a discussion of in school 4-H meetings, out-of-school curriculum, project work, and the camping program. "Targeting Life Skills" and "Character Education" programs are covered. Also included is training on managing volunteer leaders, managing money, and other practical topics.	Rock Eagle 4-H Center $250
Georgia 4-H Judging Team Training	12/08/19	TBA	ORG, 4-H PM, EDD	Georgia 4-H Judging are a great opportunity to expand county 4-H Programming and teach youth a variety of critical thinking skills. Come learn what makes the program tick and how your county can get involved! Participants can choose from Poultry Judging, Consumer Judging, Forestry Training, and other great Georgia 4-H Judging Teams. The session will cover program basics, volunteer recruitment and management,	Rock Eagle 4-H Center Fee TBA