

2016 Perennial Peanut Field Day

Saturday July 23, 2016
UF/IFAS NFREC Quincy

Agenda

9:30 EST - Registration

10:00-10:30 - Welcome and Business Meeting -

President – PPPA Steve Basford

10:30-11:00 - Integrating Perennial Peanut into Grass Pastures - Dr. Jose Dubeux, Forage Extension Specialist, NFREC

11:00-11:30 - Producer/Buyer/Hay Store Surveys - Dr. Sandra TenBroeck and Dr. Carissa Wickens - UF Department of Animal Sciences - State Equine Specialists and Rebecca TenBroeck - new Agronomy graduate student

11:30-11:50 - The potential for sub-tropical Alfalfa and how it fits with perennial peanut operations - Dr. Joe Bouton, Emeritus Professor, Dep. Crop & Soil Sciences, UGA and Owner-Manager, Bouton Consulting Group. LLC.

11:50-12:20 - Using ornamental perennial peanuts in landscaping - Dr. Gary Knox, Horticultural Extension Specialist, NFREC

12:20-12:30 - Wrap up and evaluation - Clay Olson, Taylor County Extension Director, Doug Mayo, Jackson County Extension Director and Dr. Ann Blount, Forage Breeder, NFREC

12:30-1:00 - Lunch

1:00-3:00 - Field Tours with Dr. Cheryl Mackowiak, Soil and Water Quality Specialist, Dr. Gary Knox and Dr. Ann Blount

Sponsored by: Perennial Peanut Producers Association

