

Citizenship Washington Focus

June 12-17, 2022

CWF is 4-H's premier citizenship and leadership experience for high school youth. Delegations from across the country attend this six-day program at the Hyatt Regency Bethesda, located just outside Washington, D.C. Participants attend workshops, committees, field trips, and social events, giving them hands-on opportunities to learn and grow.

Eligible Participants - CWF is open to all Georgia 4-H members in 9th-12th grade at the time of the trip.

Registration Deadline – March 4, 2022 - Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. To ensure your participation in CWF, register ASAP! This form must be submitted by the above date.

Cost & Payment - The total cost will be approximately $1,900 per person.* The standard registration package for CWF is $1400 per person, plus transportation and outing costs. Transportation costs will be determined by the number of participants and will be announced after the final delegation size is determined. *NOTE: The above costs do not cover meals on the way to Washington D.C. and back. There is also one day when participants must pay for their own lunch. Please plan for an additional $120 to cover these meals.

Make checks payable to the "Georgia 4-H Foundation." A down payment of $500 is due by March 11. The remaining balance is due by May 13, 2022, but can be paid in installments with final due on May 13.

Transportation - 4-H will provide transportation to and from Washington, D.C., and during the week of CWF. Specific details on the transportation to/from Washington, D.C. will be provided at a later date. Participants must provide their own transportation to the designated pick-up and drop-off location.
