

2019 Southwest Georgia Master Cattleman Program

Sponsored by AGCO Corporation

When: February 4 – March 25, 2019
 Each Tuesday: 6:30 – 8:30 pm
 Location: Brooks County Extension
 400 E Courtland Ave., Quitman, GA 31643

February 4	Dr. Jacob Segers	Nutritional Management
February 11	Dr. Dennis Hancock	Forage Management
February 18	Dr. McKissick	Beef Industry Economics
February 25	Dr. Brent Credille	Herd Health management Diseases and Biosecurity Concerns
March 4	Dr. Nancy Hinkle Dr. John Worley	External Parasite Management Farm Facilities & Fencing Methods
March 11	Dr. Lee Jones	Improving Reproductive Management
March 18	Ms. Sarah Loughridge	Sire & Female Selection Georgia Cattleman's Update Record Keeping & UGA Programs
March 25	Dr. Carole Knight	Beef Quality Assurance Understanding the Beef We Produce Graduation

Participants will be provided a USB thumb drive covering all program topics.

Participants completing at least six of the eight sessions will receive a certificate of completion and UGA Master Cattleman Cap.

Registration is $85 per person and includes a dinner each night. Pre-Registration deadline is January 21, 2019.

Registration may be mailed with checks made payable to Brooks County Extension to 400 E. Courtland Ave., Quitman, GA 31643 or you may contact the Brooks County Extension office at 229-263-4103 to register and pay via credit card over phone.

For more information, contact the program coordinators at:

Jason Duggin
 University of Georgia
 1282 SR 53 Spur, SW
 Calhoun, GA 30701
 (706)624-1403 jduggin@uga.edu

Michasia Dowdy
 Brooks County Extension- ANR Agent
 400 E. Courtland Ave.
 Quitman, GA 31643
 (229)263-4103 michasia@uga.edu